

PRESS RELEASE

ERRANT LICENSED MONEYLENDER REBECCA YEO FINED $7,500

1. The Registry of Moneylenders (ROM), a division of the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office, brought charges in the Subordinate Courts on 28 January 2013 against licensed moneylender Yeo Saw Yan, Rebecca, the sole proprietor of Focus Credit Connections.
 2. Yeo Saw Yan, Rebecca, pleaded guilty and was convicted on three out of eight charges. Yeo held a moneylending licence from 25 December 2009 to 24 December 2011 and chose not to renew the licence upon its expiry. An outline of her charges is as follows:
 - Two charges relate to breaches under Rule 20(1)(b) of the Moneylenders Rules for granting an unsecured loan to a Singapore borrower with an annual income of at least $20,000 but less than $30,000, and thereby causing the outstanding loan amount to exceed the prescribed limit of two months of the borrower's income.
 - One charge relates to a breach under Section 21(1) of the Moneylenders Act for failure to provide a statement of account to a borrower who has an existing loan contract.
- The remaining five charges were taken into consideration by the Court for the purposes of sentencing.
3. Yeo was sentenced in the Subordinate Courts to a fine of $7,500 (in default 25 days' imprisonment). Please refer to Annex A for the list of licensed moneylenders who have been convicted and fined since 2011.
 4. The Registry carries out regular inspections of licensed moneylenders. Where breaches of moneylending laws are found, enforcement measures are taken, including the suspension or revocation of licences, forfeiture of security deposits, warnings and prosecutions. Those convicted of breaches of the Moneylenders Act and Rules face a fine of up to $40,000 and/or an imprisonment term of up to two years on each charge.
