

PRESS RELEASE

MANAGER OF ERRANT LICENSED MONEYLENDING COMPANY, 77 MONEYLENDER PTE LTD, FINED $15,000

1. The Registry of Moneylenders, a division of the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office, brought charges in the Subordinate Courts on 6 January 2014 against 34-year-old Lee Zhe Kai (李泽楷), previously known as Kee Yong Hwa (纪勇华), a manager of moneylending company, 77 Moneylender Pte Ltd, which has held a moneylending licence since 2 Feb 2011.
2. On 3 February 2014, Lee pleaded guilty in the Subordinate Courts and was convicted on two out of six charges for the following offences:
 - One charge relates to a breach under Section 24(7) of the Moneylenders Act for recklessly furnishing false information to the Registrar.
 - One charge relates to a breach under Rule 20(1)(b) of the Moneylenders Rules for granting an unsecured loan to a Singapore borrower with an annual income of at least $20,000 but less than $30,000, and thereby causing the outstanding loan amount to exceed the prescribed limit of two months of the borrower's income.

The remaining four charges were taken into consideration by the Court for the purposes of sentencing.

3. Lee was sentenced in the Subordinate Courts to a fine of $15,000 (in default five weeks' imprisonment). Twenty-one licensed moneylenders have been convicted and fined since 2011 (see Annex A).
4. The Registry carries out regular inspections of licensed moneylenders. Where breaches of moneylending laws are found, enforcement measures are taken, including the suspension or revocation of licences, forfeiture of security deposits, warnings and prosecutions. Those convicted of breaches of the Moneylenders Act and Rules face a fine of up to $40,000 and/or an imprisonment term of up to two years on each charge.
