

PRESS RELEASE

MANAGER OF ERRANT LICENSED MONEYLENDING COMPANY, SAPPHIRE CREDIT AND INVESTMENTS PTE LTD, FINED $20,000

1. The Registry of Moneylenders, a division of the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office, brought charges in the Subordinate Courts on 9 September 2013 against Tan Wah Yee, aged 46, a manager of moneylending company, Sapphire Credit and Investments Pte Ltd.
2. The company held a moneylending licence from 23 February 2010 to 22 February 2011, which was not renewed upon expiry as the company was then under investigation for offences which possibly warranted prosecution.
3. On 13 January 2014, Tan pleaded guilty in the Subordinate Courts and was convicted on four out of 11 charges for the following offences:
  - One charge relates to a breach under Section 10(13)(a) of the Moneylenders Act for commencing the business of moneylending at a place of business without the approval of the Registrar.
  - One charge relates to a breach under Section 24(7) of the Moneylenders Act for recklessly furnishing false information to the Registrar.
  - One charge relates to a breach under Rule 9(3) of the Moneylenders Rules 2009 for failure to extend a completed loan application form to a borrower.
  - One charge relates to a breach under Rule 20(1)(b) of the Moneylenders Rules for granting an unsecured loan to a Singapore borrower with an annual income of at least $20,000 but less than $30,000, and thereby causing the outstanding loan amount to exceed the prescribed limit of two months of the borrower's income.

The remaining seven charges were taken into consideration by the Court for the purposes of sentencing.

4. Tan was sentenced in the Subordinate Courts to a fine of $20,000 (in default 11 weeks' imprisonment). Twenty licensed moneylenders have been convicted and fined since 2011 (see Annex A).
5. The Registry carries out regular inspections of licensed moneylenders. Where breaches of moneylending laws are found, enforcement measures are taken, including the suspension or revocation of licences, forfeiture of security deposits, warnings and prosecutions. Those convicted of breaches of the Moneylenders

Act and Rules face a fine of up to $40,000 and/or an imprisonment term of up to two years on each charge.
